The year 2009 saw the introduction of a new limited edition: the Runabout range by Frédérique Constant, designed to pay tribute to the legendary Runabout gentlemen's sports boats of the roaring 20s, and which can be still seen today gracing the waters of lakes such as Lake Geneva, Lake Como and Lake Tahoe.

After the stunning success of the Runabout Chrono-Automatic, Frédérique Constant is now introducing all-new special edition Runabout timepieces in Limited Editions of 1'888 pieces each, in honour of the brand's continued involvement and support of the annual lake Tahoe Concours d'Elegance in the USA and the Hélice Classique in Switzerland. Both events aim to bring together and to pay tribute to many of the remaining Runabout yachts. Yachts that today - as in their...
