

FC-980V4S9

188 pieces

This year, Frederique Constant introduces the new Classics Manufacture. Designed and produced with utmost care, the sophisticated dial shows a remarkable refinement. Decoration of the movement is to the highest standards, with Côtes de Genève and Collimaçon patterns, brightly shining due to the rhodium finishing. The new Classics Manufacture is based on the second generation of the Maxime movement, cal. FC-710 and features an added center seconds hand. Apart from stainless steel, the Classics Manufacture is also available with a case finished in rosegold plating. Based on this new caliber, the young Manufacture has also developed a new Worldtimer Manufacture caliber, the FC-718, featured in two different dial versions and both manufactured in a limited edition of 1888...
